RE: City of Eagle Country Christmas

Get into the holiday spirit by attending the annual City of Eagle Country Christmas at Heritage Park (185 E. State St.) on Saturday, December 10, from 1:00-6:00pm.

“The City of Eagle’s County Christmas event is fun and festive. With activities for children, families, and couples alike.” Says Mayor Ridgeway, who is particularly excited about this year’s additions. “We’ll have a real reindeer and a competition for the best hot cocoa.”

- Enjoy free kids activities, live music, market vendors, and s’mores by a fire.
- Pet a real reindeer!
- Help Santa this year by donating lightly used winter coats and other items for Coats for Kids.
- Take a free horse-drawn carriage ride around downtown Eagle sponsored by Mountain America Credit Union.
- New this year is the Reindeer Ramble, a fun run/walk through downtown Eagle starting at 4:15pm. Participants of the Reindeer Ramble will be treated to cookies, milk, and hot chocolate following the walk/run. Register for the Reindeer Ramble at <http://bit.ly/reindeerramble> or www.cityofeagle.org/recreation.
- Another addition to the event is “Cookies & Cocoa”, a cookie and hot chocolate tasting event at Creekside Bible Fellowship (350 E. State St.). Participants will get to vote for their favorites and cookies will be available for purchase.
- Last but not least, the City of Eagle Christmas tree lighting at Heritage Park at 5:37pm sharp!
