Who's been recently appointed and confirmed to serve on Eagle's boards and commissions?

By Jeff Kunz, City Council President

EAGLE – Our city government could not function properly without the very talented and very capable appointees that generously serve on all of our city's boards and commissions, including:

- Steve Guerber, who was recently appointed and confirmed to the Planning & Zoning Commission. He will serve a three-year term.
- Michael Huffaker, who was recently appointed and confirmed to the Parks & Pathways Development Commission. His term will expire in 2019.
- Bill Arnold, Susan Hooley, Stephen Douglas, Steve Humke and Jane Kramer, who were recently appointed and confirmed to the Arts Commission. Mr. Arnold's and Ms. Hooley's terms will expire in 2019. Mr. Douglas', Mr. Humke's and Ms. Kramer's terms will expire in 2018.
- Louis Germano was recently appointed and confirmed to the Design Review Board. His term will expire in March 2019.
- Zachary Pence and Paula Davina were recently appointed and confirmed to the Historic Preservation Commission. Their terms will expire in February 2019.
- Mayor Stan Ridgeway was recently appointed and confirmed as the primary representative to the Valley Regional Transit Board. Planning & Zoning Administrator Bill Vaughan and Planner III Nichoel Baird Spencer were recently appointed and confirmed as alternate representatives to the Valley Regional Transit Board.

Additional appointments will be forthcoming to fill vacancies on the Planning & Zoning Commission and Industrial Development Commission.
